

Bancy Art

RENEWAL

Eleven golden pieces of bark, carefully placed on a wood panel with a finish resembling brushed steel.

These bark fragments originate from a tree planted in 1963 in Saint-Bruno-de-Montarville (Greater Montreal Area).

This piece captures the eternal rhythm of nature.

Each vein,
every crevice,
testifies to its continual metamorphosis.

