LIFE CYCLE

This painting unveils itself as a visual poem, where the seven colors of the chakras transport us into a magical world.

Rivers of vibrant hues intertwine in an elegant dance, creating fluid effects that awaken the soul and resonate in the hearts of those who dare to immerse themselves.

This painting celebrates the interconnection and evolving beauty that characterize the unique journey of each individual.

By capturing the essence of the healing virtues of the seven chakra colors, it inspires a profound sense of meditation on the symbiosis between the physical, emotional, and spiritual dimensions of our existence.
